EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Matthew Bethards on 11/12/05.

Claim 21, An assistance device for assisting a user in getting into and out of positions on a piece of furniture comprising:

a base having dimensions configured to extend under a substantial width of a cushion-type portion of furniture; at least one leg having a first end rotatably coupled to the base, the at least one leg configured to rotate along a plane that is substantially perpendicular to the base;

a handle rotatably coupled to a second end of the at least one leg; and a locking device located on the handle and coupled to the at least one leg, the locking device configured to engage the at least one leg to maintain the at least one leg in a fixed vertical position.

Claim 22, the assistance device of claim 21, wherein the handle maintains a horizontal orientation to the base while being pivoted.

Claim 23, the assistance device of claim 21, further comprising two legs rotatably coupled to the base and the handle.

Claim 24, the assistance device of claim 21, further comprising a strap having a first end and a second end, the first end attached to the base and the second end configured to attach to a frame or other rigid portion of furniture.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not teach nor does any combination thereof fairly suggest an assistance device having a base with dimensions configured to fit and extend under the substantial width of a cushion-type piece of furniture in conjunction with the handle and locking device as claimed. The combination of elements as set forth in the claims is not shown by the prior art, and in particular the features as set forth above

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
